

Tips from the Nut-free Easter Bunny

With parties and Easter egg hunts approaching, some “nut free” shopping tips could be helpful.

The items listed below MAY be safe for children with tree nut and peanut allergies. It is our hope that this will save families time while shopping for safe candy to send in to school; BUT, please always read the label before purchasing as manufacturers change production processes periodically.

Also, some of the “loose” type of candy listed below may not be great for the egg hunts (since the individual pieces often fall out into the mulch), but may be useful for school crafts or parties.

Jelly Beans:

- Just Born Jelly Beans: Original Fruit, Spice or Licorice Flavors
- Jolly Rancher Jelly Beans
- Sweet-tart Jelly Beans
- Mike & Ike Jelly Beans: Fruit Flavor
- Starburst Jelly Beans: Original or Sour Flavors
- Lifesaver Jelly Beans: Pastel or Assorted Flavors

Other Candies:

- Hershey Kisses (milk chocolate)
- Hershey Milk Chocolate Eggs (in foil wrappers)
- Hershey Candy Coated Milk Chocolate Eggs
- York Peppermint Patties
- Skittles
- Twizzlers
- Smarties
- Tootsie Rolls
- Tootsie Pops
- Dum Dum Lollipops
- Dots
- Junior Mints
- Juju Fruits
- Airheads
- Peeps
- Swedish Fish and Swedish Fish Eggs
- Lifesaver Gummies and Lifesaver Gummie Bunnies and Eggs
- Milk Duds

- Whoppers