

Sunday May 21st

Happy Sunday! I hope you're all enjoying the beautiful weather we're having today!

I want to start off by saying congratulations to Miss S on her Law School graduation. That's such a big accomplishment.

This is our last week of school! It's so hard to believe that the end is here.

We will have our last gym class on Monday. On Wednesday we will have Clem Bowen come to school for a show, he does a fantastic job with the kids.

We will also celebrate our summer birthdays tomorrow for Chase, Holly and Rory.

Thank you so much for allowing me to teach your children this year. They are all wonderful human beings and I can't wait to see them blossom next year.

I hope you all have a great summer!

Thank you for all you do!
